

Will of Robert Nunn of Lawshall, Suffolk, yeoman

Paraphrased transcription

- To son Thomas Nunn: £10
- To son Henry Nunn: copyhold land in Stanningfield and £100
- To son James Nunn: messuage or tenement in Lawshall & Stanningfield, on condition he pay my daughters Rose, Mary and Elizabeth Nunn £100 each.
- 20 shillings to the poor of Stanningfield
- To wife Rose, all household goods and money. Messuage or tenement in Stanningfield. After her death, Stanningfield property to son Robert Nunn.
- £100 to wife Rose to take the interest arising during her lifetime. After her death, that £100 to son William Nunn, but he to pay out the sums:
 - £10 to sons John and Thomas Nunn
 - £15 each to sons James, Henry and daughters Rose, Mary and Elizabeth Nunn

Executors: wife Rose Nunn, brother-in-law William Bixby of Bury St. Edmunds to supervise.

6th November 1717

Witnesses: William Tooke, Rachel Tooke, Bridget Simson

Proved: 17th July 1719

[Held at Bury St. Edmunds Record Office]