

Will of Mary Whiting, spinster of St. Botolph's, Colchester, 1783

- To cousin Robert Sach of Bradwell-juxta-Coggeshall, farmer: £20 for the sole benefit of his sister, Mary, wife of Ezra Livermore. If she dies before the £20 is spent, the remainder to be divided among her children.
- To Mr. William Smith of Wivenhoe, Customs Officer: £5 for the benefit of his mother-in-law, Sarah Smith, widow (my cousin)
- To my said cousin Mary Livermore and my cousin Elizabeth, wife of William Munsey of Wivenhoe, coal-meter, my wearing apparel and linen.
- £1 1 shilling to whoever is minister of Red Lion Walk protestant dissenters in Colchester, at the time of my death
- Rest and residue (apart from that which is on a sheet of paper pinned to my will to be otherwise disposed of [has not survived with will]) to my cousins Edward Sach of Coggeshall, farmer & John Lambert of Braintree, farmer, in trust for my cousins Elizabeth wife of William Munsey. Anything left over after her death to be divided between her children.

Executors: the said Edward Sach and John Lambert

Written: 22nd September 1777

Witnesses: Peter Daniell, Willm. Francis

Proved: 16th January 1783

ERO ref: D/ACW 34/6/10