

Will of Nicholas Bacon of Mistley, yeoman, 1731

- To my daughter Sarah Bacon: £100 when 21. If she dies before 21, the money to be divided between my sons Nicholas Bacon and Robert Bacon when they reach 21.
- To my two daughters-in-law Elizabeth Cousins and Mary Cousins: £10 each
- To my brother William Bacon: my wearing apparel
- Rest and residue to be sold by executor. Proceeds to be divided between my said sons Nicholas Bacon and Robert Bacon when they reach 21.

Executors: my said son Nicholas Bacon and my brother Edward Frost of Weeley, Essex.

He marks.

Written: 27th December 1728

Witnesses: Dav. Mustard, John Sharman, H? Cottmar.

Probate: 17th April 1729

In Latin: 12th October 1731, mentions Marie Frost widow, Robert Bacon and Sarah Bacon.
Unclear – perhaps Nicholas Bacon jnr had died and so Edward's widow became the executor?
