

Will of Sturgeon Nunn of Assington, farmer, 1782

- To my nephew Edward Chinery, son of my sister Sarah (wife of Edward Chinery of Acton, farmer), my message/tenement with outhouses and land in Assington, now in my own occupation, charged with:
 - £20 annuity for my sister Sarah
 - £5 annuity for my niece Sarah, wife of John Hayward of Melford, farmer (a daughter of the said Sarah Chinery)
 - £10 annuity for my niece Ann Chinery (another daughter of my said sister Sarah Chinery)
- To my said nephew Edward Chinery, my message/tenement with cottage and lands in Great Henny, Essex, now in the occupation of Joseph Causton, charged with:
 - £10 annuity to my niece Rose Brewster, wife of William Brewster of Black Notley, Essex, farmer (one of the daughters of my late brother Philip Nunn)
 - £10 annuity to my niece Mary Ruffle (another daughter of my said late brother Philip Nunn)
 - £10 annuity to Hannah Gibbs who now lives with me
- £150 to Sturgeon Nunn Brewster, one of the sons of my said niece Rose Brewster
- £100 each to all the other children of my said niece Rose Brewster who shall be living at the time of my decease when 21 respectively.
- £300 to my said niece Ann Chinery
- Rest and residue to be divided equally between: my said sister Sarah Chinery, Sarah Hayward, Ann Chinery, Rose Brewster and her children who shall be living at my decease and Mary Ruffle.

Executors: the said Joseph Causton, and Mr. Baker of Little Ropers in Bures St. Mary, Suffolk, farmer

Written: 26th December 1781

Witnesses: William Hewes, Margaret Beales x, Richd Hodge.

Proved: 26th February 1782

Source: The National Archives; Kew, England; Prerogative Court of Canterbury and Related Probate Jurisdictions: Will Registers; Class: PROB 11; Piece: 1087.