

Will of Susan Cardinall of Layer-de-la-Haye, widow, 1666

- Being very ancient and crased? in body
- Eldest son Thomas Cardinall: 5 shillings
- “One other of my sons” William Cardinall: 5 shillings
- Grandson Thomas Pilgrim:
 - Various specified furniture and household goods
 - That trunk of mine, and its contents, in custody of Mr. Moore
 - £30 (part of the £60 owed me by Mr. Moore)
- Grandson Samuel Pilgrim:
 - The trunk and its contents which is in the custody of Mr. Hammond, when Samuel is 21
 - A silver spoon
 - The other £30 remaining from that owed by Mr. Moore, when 21
- Grandchild Susan Pilgrim:
 - £40 when 21
 - The great chest and its contents, in my possession, when 21
 - Rest and residue

Executor: the said Thomas Pilgrim

Supervisors: my friends Roger Bridge of Layer-de-la-Haye, yeoman, and Thomas Bridge his son (5 shillings each)

She marks

Witnesses: Margaret Bridge x, William Bridge x

Written: 28th June 1659

Proved: 26th October 1666