

Will of Thomas Jaggard of Wix, 1852

- His mortgaged farm in Fingringhoe to be sold, and all his personal estate to be sold. The money to pay of his mortgage and debts, and any remainder to be divided between his children (unnamed in the will).

Written: 3rd October 1846 (originally said "of Wivenhoe" but changed to Wix)

He signed.

Witnesses: Robt Marson, Arthur Godfrey (clerks to William Salmon Cooper, solicitor of Colchester).

Executors: George Frederick Cooper and Benjamin Page, both of Fingringhoe

Proved: 30th September 1852

Note says he died in Wix on 4th April 1851, but he was in fact buried in Wix on 12th March that year.

ERO ref: D/ACW 45/1/27