

Will of George Turner of Pebmarsh, yeoman, 1764

- To be buried in churchyard of parish where I live at time of death, with no pomp and at as little expense as possible.
- To my wife Rose Turner: all my freehold in Pebmarsh; all my personal estate; all my leases for land and premises (held under Lady Dowager Grimston, Joseph Sager and John Shrive).
- If my wife remarries, she is to pay out of my estate £40 to each of my children still living (children not named in will).
- Executrix: my wife Rose Turner

Written: 2nd February 1764

Witnesses: Jno. Chaplyn, Dan. Meed, Thomas Moore