

Will of James Cardinal, farmer of Tolleshunt D'Arcy, 1826

- To sister Ann Cardinal in Witham: two cottages in D'Arcy (one occupied by Fule? Hughes and Jacob Hall, the other occupied by John Claydon) and three pieces of land (the land called "Rainbow Maggots"), for her natural life. After her death, to go to my wife Elizabeth Cardinal.
- To aforesaid wife Elizabeth Cardinal: cottage in D'Arcy occupied by Thomas Cooper, wheelwright; the lease of the farm where I now reside; all crops, stock and implements; all ready money and securities; all rest and residue.

Executors: wife Elizabeth Cardinal and John Argent of D'Arcy, farmer.

Signed James Cardinal

Written: 28th April 1825

Witnesses: Saml Nash, Josh Day (sol Maldon), Geo Hearn jnr (his clerk)

Proved 4th April 1826

Note: 17th February 1852. Left unadministered by the executors. Admon to Henry Argent, the nephew. Elizabeth survived her co-executor and died intestate.

PCC will

Transcriber's note:

- James Cardinal buried in Tolleshunt D'Arcy aged 72 on 16th January 1826.
- Elizabeth Cardinal buried in same aged 89 on 11th November 1842.