

Will of James Cardinall of Langham, 1664

- My daughter and her three children, 5 shillings each (having bestowed money on her at her marriage).
- My son James the £100 I lent him.
- Money owed me by George Read to be divided between my sons Charles and William.
- My youngest son Thomas: £300 and one copyhold cottage in Dedham.
- All the rest, residue and all of my lands and tenements and goods and chattels to my eldest son, John.

Executor: my eldest son, John.

Written: 13th January 1663/4

Witnesses:

Proved: 8th June 1664

PCC will

Transcriber's note: Mr. James Cardynall, gent., buried in Langham 4th February 1663/4