

Will of Charles Cardinall, dyer of Colchester St. James, 1682

- Son Charles Cardinall:
 - All houses and land, freehold and copyhold in Bradwell-next-the-Sea.
 - If Charles dies under 21, said property to be sold by my friends John Mason, John Tatem and Peter Gage. The money to be divided between the children of my Brothers Cardinall and my Sister Clarkson.
- Wife Sarah Cardinall:
 - (For her and her heirs forever) My house where I now dwell, and my house which I lately purchased from John Shurly, now in occupation of John Picke.
 - My houses and land in Powstead [Polstead?] which I lately purchased of Mr. Canham, for Sarah's natural life, then to my son Charles. If he dies without issue, to revert to Sarah's heirs.
- Rest and residue to be divided between my said wife and son.
