

Will of Charles Cardinal, dyer of Colchester St. James, 1700

- Full power and authority to my uncle Robert Mason of Dedham, gentleman, and my cousin James Clarkson of Tendring, gentleman (executors) – to sell all of my lands and tenements, freehold and copyhold, in Colchester and Thorrington?, Essex and Polstead, Suffolk. The money arising to be distributed as follows:
  - My cousin John Cardinal of Tendring £50
  - My cousin James Cardinal of Tendring £50
  - My aunt Dorothy Mason, spinster of Dedham £40
  - My aunt Mary Pake of Dedham £20
  - My aunt Elizabeth Harvey £10
  - My manservant John Tassell £10
  - My cousins Nathaniel Webb and Samuel Webb £10 each
  - My aunt Dorothy Clarkson, widow £10
  - My maid Mary Philips £5
- Rest and residue to be divided between my said uncle Robert Mason and my said cousin James Clarkson.

He signs.

Written: 2nd September 1700. "Cardinal" is spelt "Cardynell" throughout.

Witnesses: Peter Gage, Peter Gage jnr, Daniel Wodward, Ambross Rust, John Wyatt?

Proved: 18th September 1700

ERO ref: D/ACW 22/238