

Will of Dorothy Nunne of Whepstead (wife of Henry Nunne, yeoman), 1669

Henry Nunne stands bond to John Cooper and Stephen Humphry for £160. Dorothy's will seems to bequeath £80 of it.

- To Elizabeth Kerrington, my sister: £10
- To John Kerrington, my nephew: £10
- To Dorothy Kerrington, John's sister: £5
- To Jonathan Kerrington, my nephew: £5
- To Jonadab and Mary, children of my brother-in-law John Kerrington: 20 shillings each.
- To Joane Cooper, my sister: £10
- To Jeremiah Cooper, my nephew: £5
- To Elizabeth Cooper, sister of Jeremiah: £5
- To Richard, Jonathan and Johanna Cooper, children of my brother-in-law John Cooper: 20 shillings each.
- To John Cooper, my said nephew, my biggest brass pot, which was mine before marrying Henry Nunne.
- To Stephen, William and Philipp Humphry, children of my brother Stephen Humphry, 20 shillings each.
- Rest and residue of the £80 to my brother-in-law John Cooper, my sole exec.

Witnesses: Thomas Burrough, Stephen Humphry.

Ref: Edgar 494