

Will of Edward Sage esq of Colchester, 1817

- Wife Sarah Sage: all household goods, clocks, trinkets, carriages, horses & harnesses.
 - £400 plus an annuity of £450. If she remarries, annuity to be £250 instead.
- Daughter Harriet Sage: £2,000
- Daughter Alicia, wife of James Barker: £1,000
- Daughter Matilda, wife of James Rawdon: £1,000
- Son John Sage: £2,000
- Daughter Elizabeth Grellet: a half-yearly income based on a principal of £2,500. On her death, to go to maintaining her children, and as each reaches 21 years old, the principal to be divided between them.
- Emily Hobbs and her brother Edward Hobbs, "two children that it has fallen to my lot to take care of." £800 each on reaching 21.
- Son-in-law Thomas Langston of Watling Street, City of London: £100
- Son-in-law Philip Havens of Donyland Hall: £100
- Sister-in-law Alicia Rawdon: £50
- Elizabeth Rawdon, widow of my late business partner & brother-in-law William Rawdon: £50
- Reverend Thomas Ford of Melton Mowbray: £25. If he dies, to Edward Sage's sister Elizabeth Ford.
- Servant Ann Childs: £30
- Servant Mary Glass: £19
- Caroline Childs: £19
- Daughter Emma Langston, wife of Thomas Langston: £1,000

He has £20,000 invested in an Irish linen business with Mr. Richard Jennings, and has various leases and owns various property in London.

Written: 3rd October 1816

Proved: 11th March 1817

PCC will.