

Will of Henry Nunn of Whepstead, yeoman, 1707

- To my son John Nunn: the tenement where I now dwell in Whepstead, and all freehold and copyhold, he to pay my debts and legacies.
- To my wife Elizabeth: £14 a year, and her dwelling in my parlour where I now live, various furniture and household good, wood for the fire from my land.
- To my daughter Elizabeth Ruffell: 20 shillings to buy a ring.
- To my daughter Margaret Nunn: £100 (£50 three years after my death, £50 six months after my wife's death).
- To my daughter Mary Nunn: £100 (£50 when she reaches 21, £50 six months after my wife's death) and my silver cup.
- To my sister Margaret Loquar: 40 shillings a year.
- Rest and residue to my son John Nunn, he to be executor.

Written: 5th April 1707.

He marks

Witnesses: John Cooke, Robert Steward, Daniel Tod x

Proved: 30th December 1707

Ref: Goodwin III 443