

Will of William Carrington of Tollesbury, butcher 1778

- To son John Carrington: property in Tollesbury now in my own occupation, my wife Ann to live there rent-free for her natural life.
- To wife Ann: all household goods & furniture and a payment of £100
- To daughter Susanna Ardlie: property in Tollesbury in occupation of Thomas Chipperfield and Nathaniel Crosby, and a payment of £180
- To daughter Elizabeth Carrington: property in Tollesbury in occupation of James Spencer, and a payment of £190 when she reaches 21
- To son John Carrington: garden ground purchased from William Randall
- To daughter Ann Sage, wife of Edward Sage: £100. Not to receive any more than this because she has received £200 since her marriage to Edward
- To be divided between sons Thomas and John Carrington: my lease of Old Hall marshes, grazing stock and other personal estate. They to be executors.

Written: 21st May 1777

He signs.

Witnesses: Sarah Silvester, Thomas Nunn, Jacob Rice

He died in Tollesbury on 24th August 1778

Proved: 21st September 1778

ERO ref: D/ABW 106/2/64