

Will of Amos Fisher of Weeley, yeoman, 1660

- To eldest son Amos Fisher: Freehold lands and tenements in Cilam [Syleham], Suffolk, now in occupation of John Buckingham, and a house called Coll.
- To son Cornelius Fisher: copyhold lands and tenements in St. Osyth, Essex, and £100
- To daughter Hannah Fisher: £120, and one year's board
- To wife Christian Fisher: the goods she brought with her on her marriage and £90? And ten shillings; the best cow in my yard, a white mare called ?Bragge, a quarter weight of cheese, half a firkin of butter, the use and benefit of a wainscot chamber and firewood for her use, until Michaelmas next.
- To her son Robert Edwards: one ewe and one lamb.
- To my brother-in-law Thomas Parish of Langenhoe (supervisor of this will): 30 shillings
- Rest and residue to my son John Fisher, he to be sole executor.

Written 8th February 1659/60

Witnesses: Robert Dancy?, William Chase x, Gavis Rout x

Probate: 23rd August 1660

PCC will