

Will of John Cardinall / Cardnall of Manningtree, 1529

- To be buried in Mystlegh [Mistley] church by my wife.
- To the "lyie Awter" [low altar] of the said church, 6s 8d for unpaid tithes.
- To the Rodlonght [?] of the said church, 40s.
- I will have disposed the day of my burying 5 marks.
- To the "hie Autar" [high altar] of Washbroke 3s 4d.
- To the repairing of the highway between Tamite? Field and Wardelith? Carnlegh 5 marks.
- I give of any thing may be spared of my goods my will fulfilled that said thing may be bestowed in the way between Marvyns and my ground lying in Belsted otherwise called Washbroke at the mind of my executors.
- Alis [Alice] my daughter all my house and my land in Much Belsted, otherwise Washbroke, in Capdoke [Copdock] and Maveham, all the property in fee simple.
- I beseech, require and pray all my feoffees that be "seossyd and seased" [seisen?] in all my houses and lands for rehe_shed to give a state within shall be required by my executors to the performing of this my will.
- Rest and residue to my executors, John Broke and Alis his wife.

Written: 2nd March 1528/9

Witnesses: Richard Gyldenwat, John Pucke

ERO ref: D/ACR 2/216