CAMPION	Susanna				02 Jul 1782	Aged 38. Age at death from transcription in back of parish register of inscription on her tomb. This said she died on 29 July, which might be a misreading of June. It also says she was the wife of Samuel Campion (in same grave, memorial says he died 21 Dec 1840, aged 71) Their daughter Peggy Newton Campion was buried in the same grave - she died 11 Oct 1798 aged 23, but I think this might be a misreading for Nov 1793.	28
CAMPION	Margaret				15 Nov 1793	Spinster. Transcription in back of parish register of Campion family grave - contains Susannah, wife of Samuel, and Samuel. Also contains one Peggy Newton Campion, their daughter, died 11 Oct 1798. Might the date on the tomb have been misread for 11 Nov 1793?	31

LEFEVER	?				24 Feb 1762	Mrs Lefever	22
						There's a transcription of tombs at the church in the back of the parish register. One such is for Lewis Lefever, giving date of death as 3 Jan 1734/5, and age as 49. He left one son and four daughters. There is no burial in the parish register for him. It would seem to tie up with the will of Lewis Lefever of Bradfield, written 2 Jan and proved 6 Feb 1733/4. It's possible the year on the tomb was misread, as were the number of children (more are mentioned in the will).
