APPLEBY	Thomas		Elizabeth	SOCEBER?		1770	Mysterious entry - there are only marks for the bride and groom, with witnesses (Abrm. Grove, John Cole), and they've been entered on a marriage for another couple, without a date although the year is possibly 1770. That other couple's marriage is entered again and with their signatures, but there doesn't appear to be a proper marriage entry for Thomas and Elizabeth. Odd! Were they married at all?	10

BAR[N_][E_]	John		Mary	BAKER	spinster	20 May 1755	By banns. Both of Boxted, groom is a labourer. They all mark except witness 1 (William Cole). Witness 2: Elisabeth Edwards. Groom's marital status not in register. Groom's surname exceptionally hard to read. The first two letters, B and a, are clear, but the rest isn't. Phillimore's has transcribed his surname as Baine, but the third letter is the same as the r's elsewhere in this vicar's handwriting. The name is written 3 times in the entry - the first appearance could almost be Barrel but the other 2 don't look like it. It could be a mangled version of Beardwell, as children of John and Mary Bardwel appear in the baptisms register from 1760 onwards.	3
