EVERARD?	Dorothy	Single Woman	Henery	GOLDING	Widower	Mar 1687	Groom abode: Stanstead. Bride abode: Melford. Bride's surname very hard to read as the bottom of it has been cropped off at the bottom of the page. It looks like it starts with E or W, and that the last - or almost last - letter is D. Other transcriptions have Ward and Edwards, but Everard is a fairly common name in Melford (although no Dorothys with any of the three suggested surnames were baptised in Long Melford in the right period). The day of the month has been partly lost on the page edge. It begins with 2, so must be a date between 25th to 29th March.	40

HARRISON	Mary		Will.	*		Oct 1683	The entry is squashed in and faded, making it extremely hard to read. There's no full date, marital statuses, or abodes. The groom's surname is partly covered by the groom's surname from the next entry. Some transcriptions have "Butchet" for his surname, but I'm not sure. What could be the "B" could be an "m." at the end of his forename (making it "Willm."). It could be "Cole", but I'm very, very unsure!	38
