							The bride's name has mainly been missed off, consisting only of a letter A and no marital status. There is no day of the month given, only the month and year. The entry has been added to the foot of the page, saying "And theirs ought to stand next to Robert Mott in due place." But there is no marriage for Robert Mott, and the next marriage in the register is from 1618, suggesting that several pages of marriages have been lost.

TALMAGE	Robert		Frances	?		1627	Listed under 1627 but might be later - 1628 or 1629 perhaps. Unclear. No date. Marital statuses not in register. Bride's surname exceptionally hard to read. The vicar spells Frances "Francesse" at this time - it looks like this might have crossed over her surname. Her surname could be OFFER, or it could be FEEDHAM. Or it could be something else entirely.	47
