Surname	Forename	Rel.	Father	Mother	Baptism date	Notes	Img	Reg
*	*		*	*	Feb 1727/8	A child of Bas. [base born, illegitimate. No names recorded at all for this child. Full date not recorded either.]	15	/3
*	*		*	*	26 Apr 1736	A child of travlers [no names recorded, but see burials for early 1736: the wife and child of Petter Laidding were both buried in April that year.]	22	/4
*	*		*	*	10 Jul 1737	A Child of Bas that was Born at The Wedow Munfords (?) & Baptised. [no names entered. It seems to say it was a base (illegitimate) child, born at Widow Mumford's house, but the widow's surname is hard to read. Repeated in the next parish register, /5.]	22	/4
*	Wood?	son of	*		1737	Entered at the foot of a damaged page. Most of entry lost. Could be Wood for the forename, which is unusual. Parents' names entirely lost. Day of month is the 4th, but the month has been lost. Possibly October - the previous baptism was in September and the next is in November. Repeated in the next parish register, /5.	22	/4
*	*	son of			10 Jul 1737	Entered at the foot of a damaged page. Most of entry lost. Could be Wood for the forename, which is unusual. Parents' names entirely lost. Day of month is the 4th, but the month has been lost. Possibly October - the previous baptism was in September and the next is in November. Repeated in the next parish register, /5.	13	/5
BBY	[R_]	dau of	Willam	*	1726/7	Entered at the foot of a very damaged page. Date lost - follows a baptism towards the end of January 1726/7. Child's and mother's name extremely hard to read. Child's name might begin with R, so could be Rachel or Rebecca (spelling is very bad at this point which makes it even harder to decipher). Only the end of the surname is legible.	8	/3

BA*	*				23 Feb 1725/6	Entered by itself at the end of a page of marriages. The entry reads "A child of Bas baptized at the house" - but doesn't say whose house it was, unless the curate/rector meant his own. "Bas" might be a variation of the surname Buss, which appears in Hitcham, but I wonder if it could mean "a child of base", as in an illegitimate child.	6	/3
