*	*		*	*		1666	At the foot of the page, part way through 1666 entries, is what looks like very faded writing. I can't make out a word of it - it could be a baptism, burial, or marriage, or just the churchwardens signing off the page.	35	/1
*FORD?	*		Easter	[B_]*		1644	Groom abode: Sudbury. Entry at the bottom of a slightly damaged page and far too faded to read. Little of it has survived. The date is lost but the sequence in the register suggests July or Aug 1644. The groom's forename is quite short, so could be John. His surname seems to end in "ford" so could be Posford. The bride's forename has survived, but her surname is very hard to read. It could begin with "B". Her abode is given but it's too worn to read.	24	/1
